

CHAIN SHORTENER

Rang 6 mm -20 mm

A "chain shortener" typically refers to a device or method used to adjust the length of a chain, often in the context of industrial equipment, machinery, or even jewelry. It is used to either lengthen or shorten a chain to fit a specific application or to maintain proper tension and alignment. The specific design and operation of a chain shortener can vary depending on the type of chain and its intended use.